

Behaviour Change: The Five Pillars of Behaviour Management

29th November 2018

Dryden Centre, Evistones Road, Gateshead, NE9 5UR
Half-day Team Conferences (9-12.30pm or 1-4.30pm)

Why should we attend?

- Behaviour is a challenge in classrooms in all areas of learning and is shown as the number of pupils being permanently excluded dramatically increases.
- Permanent exclusions up by 12% between September 2016 and 30 June 2017, compared with those excluded during the same period the previous academic year. TES
- Continual academic and financial pressures on schools means that schools can have less capacity to handle issues.
- Are our children not being supported in the way they were?
- This training will show you exactly what steps you need to go through to improve behaviour in your classroom and throughout your school or college. We will lead you through whole organisation behaviour change.

Who should attend?

The training is appropriate for all schools, colleges and anywhere with classrooms; for all staff at all levels!

What are the 5 Pillars?

Who is your trainer?

Chris Sweeney is a Principal trainer with Pivotal Education and is in huge demand. As a teaching assistant, teacher, leader and teacher trainer Chris has been working with the most difficult behaviours in the most challenging urban schools, special schools, referral units and colleges for the last 25 years.

Throughout this time behaviour and culture has been Chris' passion and specialism, with a particular focus on understanding the motivation behind the behaviour and developing and sustaining cultures that create positive behaviours. Central to Chris' philosophy has been supporting adults to make small changes that will have a huge effect. He has provided training to a wide range of services always focusing on engaging his audience. Chris has attended too many 'death by PowerPoint' presentations and can't listen to them.... So, doesn't deliver them!

Like many people Chris started working with young people because he wanted to make a difference. What excites and enthuses Chris about the work he does with Pivotal is the privilege of making a difference to a wider range of children, young people and staff.
